Burns & McDonnell India Receives Distinguished Designation as a 2023-2024 Most Preferred Workplace

MUMBAI, INDIA (July 17, 2023) — Burns & McDonnell India, part of Burns & McDonnell, is gaining national recognition for its workplace operations and culture. The firm recently has been recognised as a 2023-2024 Most Preferred Workplace by Team Marksmen.

With insights gleaned from a comprehensive consumer study conducted across industries, Burns & McDonnell India was honored for its exceptional performance in the following areas: employee centricity; organisational purpose; intrapreneurial culture; work-life balance; diversity, equity and inclusion; growth; recognition and rewards; and safety and trust. This is the third consecutive year the company has been recognised.

“We are honored to receive this designation,” says Chad Hotovec, CEO, Burns & McDonnell India. “Fostering a welcoming, supportive and strong workplace culture is one of our top priorities. We believe it forms the basis of organisational success. At Burns & McDonnell, we constantly reevaluate our practices to build a work environment where employees feel safe, engaged, inspired and productive. We see to it that everyone’s voice is heard, regardless of their background or level in the organisation. And when this effort is rewarded and recognised, it motivates us even more to nurture our environment.”

Since maintaining preferred workplace status is an ongoing effort, the firm’s culture continually evolves as marketplace and company demands and priorities shift. Established in 2013 in Mumbai, Burns & McDonnell India is a full-service engineering company with capabilities across oil and gas, chemical and petrochemical, transmission and distribution, energy/power, environmental services, and food and consumer product sectors. The company has grown extensively in the past few years and continues to hire for roles across engineering and other functions. To serve its expanding client base, the firm is opening a location soon in Bangaluru.
